

Table of Contents

FEEDING OURSELVES IN THE NORTH COUNTRY: Earlier Planting for Abundant Harvests	by Doug Jones	Page 5
GAD CHASE, LADDERMAKER	Interview by Richard Hartigan	Page 11
FROM DESPERATION TO DELIVERANCE, FROM ASHES TO CASH	by Varick Chittenden	Page 13
BRIGHT DAYS ON THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER	Historic Photo Essay	Page 22
REGIONAL NEWS		Page 24
RE-INHABITATION	by Gary Snyder	Page 27
LAND USE IN A RURAL COUNTY: Interview with County Planner Richard Grover	by Ellen Rocco	Page 32

ON THE COVER

IVES PARK

an original six-color screen print by Paul Davison, 1975, in an edition of ten. A south view of the Racquette River from Ives Park in Potsdam, New York.

© ROOTDRINKER (unless otherwise noted), Vol. 3, No. 12, Spring 1979. $1.25/copy retail (U.S.A.); $1.50 (Canada). All Rights Reserved. Correspondence to contributors will be forwarded. Printed in an edition of 5,000 copies at Racquette River Printshop, Potsdam, N.Y. Edited and Published in the United States of America. 'Re-Inhabitation' originally appeared in the City Lights Publication The Old Ways and is reprinted here with the author's permission. Last issue the drawing on Page 13 was incorrectly credited. It was actually drawn by Doug Sharpe.

ONE YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION $3.50 (U.S.A.); $4.50 (Canada); $10 (Supporting). Four Issues/Year.